Fishing in the Cote D'Azur (2 Episodes)

Along the steep slopes of the Alpes-Maritimes stretches the French Riviera, commonly known as the Cote d'Azur. The famous Cote d'Azur is one of Europe's most visited and attractive resorts. It is synonymous with glamor and high tourism. This part of the Mediterranean includes the famous centers of Saint Tropez, Cannes, Antibes, Nice, as well as the Principality of Monaco. We start from the western point of the Cote d'Azur and sail east. We felt the charm of small fishing villages, got to know the towns and fishing at sea.

Russia - The Kola River

The Fishing Adventures crew reach far north of Europe, the Cola Peninsula. We visit the city of Murmansk and fish on the wild and beautiful rivers of the famous Atlantic salmon.

Slovenia - Fishing Taimen on River Ljubljanica

Mladica (taimen) is certainly one of the most attractive salmonid fish species in Europe. The Sava River and the river Ljubljanica are the habitat of capital specimen. It is not easy to catch them, though. This is why they are known as the fish of a thousand throw.

Slovenia - Around Kocevje

An episode in Slovenia, a municipality which is famous for salmon, carp, catfish and bears!

Switzerland - Anglers from Lake Constance (4 Episodes)

In search of attractive fishing spots, the Fishing Adventures team visits many Swiss waters. And there are indeed many of them in the land of William the Tel, at the foot of the Alps. It is difficult to decide which place is more beautiful here --- whether mountainous landscapes, picturesque settlements or deep glacial reservoirs. Lake Constance lies between Switzerland, Austria and Germany. It is a real paradise for tourists and especially for sport fishermen.

Bosnia and Herzegovina – (3 Episodes)

Bosnia and Herzegovina - an authentic geographical and historical area, rich in cultural heritage and great natural attractions. It is a hot and rugged country where life rises only along rivers. Neretva river is the longest and strongest among them. This fast-paced mountain beauty is the vein of all the areas it passes through. Downstream of Mostar, it has retained its unusual fish world.

Seychelles (4 Episodes)

Seychelles is a small island state, located in the middle of the Indian Ocean, some thousand and a half kilometers from the east coast of Africa. It is a land of everlasting sun, exotic tropical vegetation, turquoise sea and beautiful beaches. Seychelles has 115 islands, of which 33 are inhabited. They form an archipelago with a total land area of 459 square kilometers. The Seychelles Granite and Coral Islands have become important tourist destinations, recognizable for their emerald lagoons and white sandy beaches. Biologists, ornithologists and all other worshipers of untouched nature here can admire unusual plants and rare animal species. The civilization here did not interfere too much with the fingers, both on land and in water. That's why Seychelles' fish richness is amazing.

Spain – Fishing on River Ebro (2 episodes)

The territory of Spain is crossed by five large rivers, the most abundant of which is the Ebro River. In its middle and lower reaches, it was slowed down and tamed by the construction of concrete dams above which long and deep reservoirs were formed. They are best known for the places of Flix, Fish Rocha and Mekinenza. For sport anglers, these waters are paradise.

Serbia – Stara Planina Nature Park (2 Episodes)

Stara Planina lies in the southeast of Serbia. It is an area of dense forests, meadows and pastures, intersected by still fast and clear watercourses, rich in indigenous river crabs and brook trout. Clear watercourses add extra charm to this mountain. The gorges of the river and other hard-to-reach cuttings have a fascinating effect on sport anglers too, who have been catching large trout here for years.

Mongolia – National Park Siskid (2 Episodes) and Camp on the River Selenga (4 Episodes)

National park in the north of Mongolia on the border with Siberia is actually the beginning of the Yenisey River. The series shows the life of Mongol nomads in their ancient villages. In addition, the Tajmen river is rich with trout and grayling.

Selenga is Mongolia's largest river. It is created by the merger of Ider and Delger Moron, in the south of Huvsgul, a vast province stretching all the way to the border with Siberia. It is a harsh, mountain-steppe region where only wild animals and nomads meet with their herds. Centuries passed and the ancient customs and modes of economy, formed by the strict laws of nature, never changed here. One gets the impression that time has stopped in the hills around Selenga. Only the river flows cold and fast. In its bowels, it also hides some of the most attractive freshwater fish, such as the taimen.

Italy – Fishing on River Po (2 Episodes)

From its source in the Cottian Alps to its confluence with the Adriatic Sea, the Po River flows through the vast and fertile Plain of Padua, which has often been flooded in the past. That is why today the largest Italian river, with its entire length of over 650 kilometers, is surrounded by embankments and numerous dams and irrigation canals have been built throughout its basin. Po is rich in various types of fish. From the trout in the source area to the huge flocks of mullets and downwaters.

Montenegro – Big Game Cup in Gerceg Novi (2 Episodes)

Thirty kilometers long Boka Kotorska is the largest and most beautiful bay on the steep and relatively poorly demarcated Montenegro coast. In the middle of September the city Herceg Novi began organizing a new sporting event several years ago: big-game fishing, that is, catching tuna, swordfish and other large offshore predators.

Serbia – The Danube River in the Iron Gates (5 Episodes)

Between its middle and lower reaches, the Danube breaks through Iron Gates, the longest and most impressive gorge in Europe. By damming the mighty river and building a huge reservoir, navigating this Serbian-Romanian strait has become much easier and safer. The Iron Gates is visited by people because of its rich cultural and historical heritage, natural beauty, hunting and fishing. Our team enjoyed it. We have been fishing carp, catfish, perch and pumpkin, and have done it very successfully.

Carp from Samalia (2 Episodes)

In recent decades, carp fishing has seen a massive boom. An increasing number of people are fishing for this attractive fish. One of the good, carp waters is also in Serbia in the village of Samaila. This is a true oasis for fishing. Topping with large carp for many is also the ultimate excitement.
