

10x30' in HD

Matt Dawson and Allegra McEvedy follow the farming year, making their way from Cumbria to Cornwall in a thoroughly unreliable 1973 bus, cooking up recipes we can all enjoy with the very best of what England has to offer.

Upma Bhatnagar

upmab@optimumtelevision.com

+44 1276 683 764

Episodes

Episode 1 - Illuminating series with Matt Dawson and Allegra McEvedy visiting the farms, showing us where the food comes from and cooking up a storm, beginning in Cumbria.

Episode 2 – Matt and Allegra are in the Vale of Evesham, looking at where food comes from and sourcing food for an ultimate feast. Lamb chops are on the menu.

Episode 3 – Matt and Allegra reach Kent on their enlightening farm tour of the UK. They look at the production of beef and make a hearty beef casserole.

Episode 4 - Matt and Allegra explore farms in Cornwall and make spinach soup with creme fraiche and crisp lardons, warm potato salad and a towering deli sandwich.

Episode 5 - Matt and Allegra visit an organic vegetable farm in Devon and get their hands dirty. Barbecued butterflied leg of lamb is on the menu.

Episode 6 - Matt and Allegra are in Gloucestershire and Herefordshire, looking at a biodynamic farm and making roast potatoes with a definitive gravy.

Episode 7 - More delights and fascinating insights for foodies, as Matt and Allegra visit UK farms to learn about food. In Cambridge, they visit lettuce growers and a butcher.

Episode 8 - Matt's back on old turf in Northamptonshire where the duo visit an organic mushroom farm before trying their hand at buying and selling sheep at the local livestock market.

Episode 9 - Matt and Allegra's next stop on this farm tour for foodies is Gloucestershire, where they discover how to breed the perfect livestock and meet the queen of herbs.

Episode 10 - Matt and Allegra's fascinating tour of farms ends in Herefordshire. Here, they find an unusual method of picking apples and befriend many dogs while herding sheep.

